Narrative

On the above date and time Det Kevin Lehoe and I were on our way for a follow up at Stratton Rd, in Hardwick where an assault had taken place involving several people. While en route, we were re routed to an out of control teenager, later identified as K.C Dob: 10/09/99, who was carrying a knife outside his residence at 77 Buffalo St. Det. Kevin and I presumed K.C was apart of this assault case we were headed to. On arrival, we met with K.C's father who said he had the knife K.C had, he said K.C took off and was unsure where he went. We asked if he believed K.C was in the house and the father didn't know. Det. Lehoe and I went inside the house and I drew my taser because the father didn't know where the knife was, and if K.C was in the house his access to other knives had a high probability. Det. Lehoe and I cleared the rooms and never found K.C.

We left the residence and went back to where the assault took place on Stratton Rd. While there, we received word from dispatch that K.C was back at his residence and out of control again.

Upon arriving at 77 Buffalo St again, we met with K.C's father who advised us K.C was upstairs in his room. Upon entering the house, I drew my taser again because I was unsure if K.C had anymore knives. At the foot of the stairwell, K.C came out of his room and became compliant. He had turned around at the top of the stairs facing away from us. As we walked up the stairs, my taser laser was pointed at K.C's back up until Det. Lehoe gained control of K.C as he placed him into protective custody. Once a thorough pat down was done, K.C was taken out of protective custody.
